Dear Shelford Old Grammarians in Queensland

Hello again. It is that time of year to plan your get-away in time to be back for our annual get-together as Shelfordians. Your news is always enjoyed when you share it at our annual luncheon. One of our regulars Chris Hildebrand is now living at Airlie Beach and Pam Sligo is at Banora Point NSW; others of us are somewhere close to where we were this time last year but never exactly in the same spot; that special spirit moves on.

The new venue this year to celebrate SHELFORD is MJs Restaurant at The Holiday Inn, 2nd floor city side in the Roma Street Transit Centre site in central Brisbane. Three choices for each of the three courses of SOUP, MAIN COURSE and DESSERT with tea and coffee is $35.00 per person; drinks are separate. The current menu is attached although by July it will be the winter selection. Adelene Burbank and Sean Schooling are the Restaurant Supervisors at MJs who have planned the luncheon with me.

Are you expecting visitors from cold Melbourne who are visiting sunny Queensland for our special day? If so invite them and come together. Should you discover any Shelford girls in Queensland who are not on the mailing list please let me know. Our invitation is extended to Mrs Pam Chessell at Shelford. It is with enormous respect that the Board of Governors of Shelford Girls' Grammar is now seeking an outstanding educator as its new Principal when Mrs Chessell intends to resign at the end of 2009. She has led the School with distinction for eighteen years creating the "unparalleled growth and achievement in every section of the School".

With Judy Ciolli's assistance we may find a few more Shelfordians who also enjoy the 4000 postcode! Please write out your annual news. Bring photographs and stories to tell. Shelford's Quaerite Quarterly regularly finds space for our news. Do contact the school through Judy Ciolli if you are a member of the Shelford Old Grammarians and you have missed receiving a copy of the Quaerite Quarterly. If you are travelling to Melbourne, be sure to contact the Shelford office, pay a visit to the school and report back in July on all the developments at Shelford. Again thank you to the team of willing helpers, in particular Suzanne and Jill Marcombe, and Janice Ambor who have the name tags ready, collect the payments, write the news and sing Quaerite Primo Regnum Dei.

Put Saturday July 25, 12.00noon into your diary and come along by plane, train, coach or car and bring a camera.
